

Accumeta Metasearch Engine

We developed this website from concept to finish for this well-known search engine.

Accumeta has been online since 1998 and needed a marketing driven frontend and a full featured database driven PHP backend to service their worldwide user base. We delivered the functionality that the publishers of Accumeta required to enable them to continue to provide search and directory promotional results for their many advertisers and clients.

Please explore the website from this link.